"THE BIBLE AND LIFE" IS TOPIC OF SERMON

Dr. Edwards Refers to Book as Biggest Piece of Literature in World.

In the course of his sermon on "The Bible and Life," at the Methodist church Sunday morning, Rev. Dr. L. M. Edwards referred to the book as the biggest piece of literature in the world. "Why was there a garden with a man and a woman tempted? Why do we have the story of Abraham and Isaac yonder on Moriah's summit? Why do we have a David tuning his harp and singing his lyric songs? Why do we have a Jesus? Why do we have, in the closing pages of this Bible, a picture of the Celestial City as a vision from the Patmos Seer? Simply because these are in life," said the Rev. speaker. "There is a garden; there is a tempter; there is a fall, and the blight of that fall has fallen on man. We feel its terror and its tragedy. Why? Because there come times in our lives when we must go to Mount Moriah, and when the hopes of the years and the affections of the heart and the plans and castles which we have built must all be taken in the hand and weighed against the human sacrifice. There must be a sacrificial altar in every life, so there must be one in the Bible. Why? Because we have been hunted and pursued and envied, and yet are able, per-

PREMONA ELEVEN

LOSES FIRST GAME

Defeated by Jolly Fellows Club in Hard Fought Game, 6 to 0.

The Premona football team was given its first beating Sunday afternoon on the North Side ball grounds, when the Jolly Fellows club of South Bend defeated them 6 to 0. This is the first game the locals have lost in two years, and it was won by the Benders on account of the weakened condition of the Premona line. Although the local players fought spiritedly throughout the game, the visitors had no trouble in making consistent gains through the line, and frequently Powell, fullback, would make ten and fifteen yards around end. The tally was secured in the third quarter, when Powell smashed through center for five yards and goal, after Neuland had fumbled a punt and a visiting player had recovered it.
